CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY!

ETHICAL PRINCIPLES

The Nietiedt Group acts in accordance with an ethical code based on ISO 26000. This provides guidance and recommendations on how organisations of all kinds should act in order to be considered socially responsible. The Nietiedt Group is committed to morally and ethically sound working practices. We expressly reject the acquisition of business through corruption and expect similar working practices not only from our employees, but also from our customers and suppliers. Therefore, we will continue to work with suppliers who share our values in terms of quality, ethics and morals, and the environment.

Nietiedt

Nietiedt:

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY!

ETHICAL PRINCIPLES

Nietiedt expects both its employees and business partners to work in accordance with the basic principles of these rules of conduct, paying particular attention to fair treatment of each other and equal opportunities. Suppliers and sub-contractors should be guided by the principles of sustainable development, which Nietiedt practices. Everyone is encouraged to work continuously to improve the established principles and processes. All Nietiedt employees are required to observe the applicable legal rules for the prevention of bribery and corruption.

Nietiedt

Nietiedt:

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY!

CORPORATE VALUES

The employees of Nietiedt are expected to act in a professional, honest and ethically sound manner.

The company's guiding principle is the integrity of its operations. In addition to all employees obeying the law, this also requires mutual respect and an open and fair dialogue within the company and with all third parties. Every employee should respect the rights of others, in particular their right to privacy and honour, in the course of their work.

Nietiedt will follow the guidelines set out here when selecting business partners. In addition, Nietiedt will always advocate open and fair competition. Nietiedt does not allow discrimination against anyone on the basis of their gender, age, disability, race, origin or nationality, ethnic or religious beliefs, or sexual orientation. Such behaviour will not be tolerated.

Nietiedt is committed to the traditions and values of the German and European cultural area. This includes maintaining generous and open hospitality towards business partners and third parties. Nietiedt aims to uphold this aspect of European culture in all its dealings with others, but of course, and in particular with regard to public officials, the legal requirements for permissible benefits are strictly observed. In business dealings, the appropriateness of all benefits must be ensured for all employees in order to avoid any distortion of competition.
